After the wonderful success of the 2022 UAGS Youth Camp, we are again hosting summer soccer camps for girls in grades 1-5 and grades 6-8!

Upper Arlington Girls Soccer has a tradition of excellence. We've been Ohio Capital Conference division champions 8 times. We are 9-time champions of the OHSAA Central District. And we've represented UA in the State Final Four as champions of the OHSAA Central Region. We've earned those championships through mutual respect, hard work, and an "ALL IN" team mentality, and those are the values we carry forward.

To continue that tradition and offer a glimpse into the way we prepare and train at the high school level, we offer an annual UAGS Youth Camp to all UA girls entering grades 1-5 and 6-8 who may be interested in playing soccer for the high school some day.

TRAINING FOCUS

The camp offers four days of robust training, focusing on the technical and fundamental aspects of the game. Speed of play and decision making are emphasized through the quick-thinking and precision of "rondo training" — a concept Upper Arlington Head Coach and Camp Director Andrew Kessinger has incorporated over many years and utilizes with his student-athletes at the Varsity level.

COACHING STAFF

The camp features a highly qualified staff who will teach players the skills they need to be successful at the next level. Including current and former UAGS players ready to help guide and coach the future of UAGS. These current and former UAGS players have been to 2 District finals, winning one in 2020. As well as part of one of only 5 teams in program history to lose one regular season game in 2021.

Andrew Kessinger is the Girls Varsity Head Coach and Program Director at the high school. A former pro player and collegiate All-American, he's a member of the Athletics Hall of Fame at both his high school and college alma maters. He currently coaches club soccer for Ohio Premier and is the former Director of Coaching for the Eagles Soccer Club (now OP) in Upper Arlington.

Chad Blomgren is the Girls Varsity Assistant Coach at Upper Arlington. A former Varsity Assistant Coach at The Wellington School, he's also the Club Soccer Coach at The Ohio State University and a current club coach at Ohio Premier.
